Strike Makes England Look to America For Fuel.

GAMBLING ON STEAMER

SHAH PLANS TO CULTIVATE FRIENDSHIP OF AMERICA.

London, Aug. 25.—Forgetting the Chinese cryptogram and the unending war in South Africa and the reconstruction of the country, a strike on a little 100mile Welsh railroad stirs up more serious interest than anything else in England this week because it is closely related to the coal supply and the manufacturing vitality of the kingdom.

The Taff-Vale railroad carries the product of 50,000 coal miners into Cardiff. The fifth day of the strike sees small quantities of the best steam coal commanding 35 shillings. All the Cardiff factories are shut down and the merchant fleet are unable to leave the harbor because they have not been supplied with coal.

Story of Mary Anderson.

Mary Anderson (Mrs. Navarre) says that she is not as young as when playing first knew her, but she has confessed to having received a shock at a bazaar held in Broadway, Worcestershire, the other day, when the rector of a religious community told her she was a mother to them. She made ā little speech, in which she remarked. "I am somewhat overwhelmed by the Most of the mines are still piling up coal at the pit mouths. All will probably be idle in another week.

The cause of the dispute is that 2,000 railway servants want a half-penny an hour more and are upheld in that demand by the Uniton of Railway Men of the United Kingdom, with £250,000 in the treasury and a strike income of £3,000 a week.

"Passengers are requested to beware of gambling." This penciled notice was posted in she Campania's smoking room when she arrived a week ago. Several Americans who had lost rather heavily at poker after the game compared notes and decided to repudiate their debts, being convinced that they had been playing against card sharps. The principal was a rich South American, whose paper debts amounted to over £1,000. The winners were two New Yorkers who were apparently unacquainted with each other when the Campania left New York. The South American alleged that he had been cheated. He paid £10 and notified the winners that he would pay the balance of his losses when they produced satisfactory references. He also telegraphed from Queenstown for a detective to meet the steamer at Liverpropool. One did so; but beyond telling the victim that the winners were well-known sharpers, he could do nothing.

Shah Wants American Friendship.

The taking by American bankers of the exchequer bonds seems to impress the shah of Persia immensely. The St, James Gazette has some curious information from Paris on the subject. It says:

"The shah is convinced that financial reasons render the alliance between France and Russia leas important every day, heccause France is tired of givering money to Russia. The only nation weren't long in getting out of this day out on the subject. It says:

Each district chairman should see that his district is supplied with a ballot box, and make all necessary arrangements for holding the primaries and give public notice of the same. The qualifications of persons to participate in the selection of delegates to the said conventions must be that they do endorse the principles enunciated in the platform of the Democratic national convention, held in July, 1900, at Kansas City, and that they will support the nominees of the Democratic party at the election to be held next November.
